ENECLANN

To Whom it May Concern,

Eneclann Ltd. provided an excellent historical research service to us. We had difficulty in ascertaining and establishing title to some land which we proposed to develop which included commonage. Current rights to usage and ownership were unclear arising from usage and licenses over two centuries. Eneclann's rigorous research which followed the paper trail, checking both obscure and more common sources back to the 1850s, was instrumental in clarifying title to the land. We were very happy with the quality of the service provided by Eneclann.

Yours sincerely,
